

Residential Energy Assistance Program Accepting Contributions Now

This program provides an opportunity for customers to help each other by making voluntary contributions to assist low-income residential customers struggling to pay their utility bill.

Donations from people like you fund this important program.

We offer convenient ways to donate:

Anyone can contribute to the Residential Energy Assistance Program (REAP). It is not necessary to be a customer of Wahkiakum PUD to contribute. Donations can be made in person, by phone or by mail. Please make your donation payable to Wahkiakum PUD and specify the funds are for REAP. Call (360) 795-3266, stop by our Cathlamet office or mail your donation to :

Wahkiakum PUD
PO Box 248
Cathlamet, WA 98612

District customers may make a contribution to REAP at any time and in any amount, opt to include a voluntary contribution with their utility payment or elect to have REAP contributions automatically included on their monthly billing statements. Customers must specify the funds are for REAP.

Guidelines

Wahkiakum PUD will accept voluntary contributions identified specifically for the Residential Energy Assistance Program. All contributions should be made payable to and collected by the district to assist qualified low-income residential customers paying their utility bills.

Eligibility for Assistance

- ◆ Applicants must be active residential account holders of the District
- ◆ Applicants may not receive assistance for vacated or second homes
- ◆ Applicants are not required to be in disconnect status in order to be eligible
- ◆ Funds are only available for residential electric and water assistance (basic charge plus usage)
- ◆ Applicants may receive assistance once per calendar year for one residential account
- ◆ Funds may only be applied to one monthly billing cycle
- ◆ Applicants must qualify based on household income guidelines

Who Gets Help

All of the funds raised by the Residential Energy Assistance Program stay in Wahkiakum County to help local low income families in need. Wahkiakum County Health and Human Services screens applicants to ensure they meet eligibility.
